

Christian Values in Music

Love	Compassion	Respect	Faith	Belonging

Creating – Using musical skills without fear of right or wrong. We aim for our pupils to LOVE their music by using different types of genres.	Inspiration - Looking to others to help us improve and help others.	Respect – Respecting and celebrating both our work and that of our peers. Respecting the natural resources around us.	Persevering – Keep trying and practicing to perfect skills in all areas of music. No skill is achievable instantly.	Teamwork – Working together to develop music skills to create an interesting result.
Imagination – look at things in unusual ways.	Generalisation - Spotting patterns and adapting them to develop music skills.	Open mindedness – Being open to appreciating the work of others and the similarities and differences in techniques.	Making mistakes – Enjoy things that go wrong and learn from them.	Community links –in local events to support and showcase music projects.
Cross curricular links – using music to support learning in other curriculum areas.	Compassion – Understanding that we all have our own experiences, talents and opinions when it comes to music skills.	Tolerance – Understanding and respect for others.	Self -confidence – Mastering and celebrating music skills, by showcasing work increases your self-belief and growth mind-set.	Expanding horizons – developing appreciation and understanding of other cultures and music.
